NEENAH, Wisconsin: St. Mary Catholic Schools (SMCS) is pleased to announce the next offering in this year's ON TRACK education series: 21st Century Parenting—Social Media. The presentation will take place on Tuesday, April 5, 2016 at 6:30 p.m. in the Jane Bergstrom Fine Arts Education Center on the campus of St. Mary Catholic High School. SMCS is pleased to welcome Community Liaison Officer Jason Weber of the Town of Menasha Police Department, who will explain popular platforms such as Kik, Whisper, Instagram and Snapchat and share strategies with parents about how to discuss social media with their children. ON TRACK presentations are offered compliments of St. Mary Catholic Schools and are designed to give participants practical insight and tools to help live a more secure, healthy and happy life. The events are hosted at the Jane Bergstrom Fine Arts Education Center at St. Mary Catholic High School during the school year in partnership with community resources and experts at no cost to the attendees.

“These workshops are designed to help community members get on track and stay on track,” reflects SMCS Director of Fund Development and Community Relations Michelle Dejno. “We recognize that everyone is on different tracks but trying to get to the same destination of financial security and wellbeing for their families. We believe that this series provides new ideas and relevant information to support our community members and we are excited to have area experts sharing their wisdom!”
