SMCS Presents ON TRACK: Recent Changes in Medicaid

NEENAH, Wisconsin: St. Mary Catholic Schools is pleased to announce the next offering in this year's ON TRACK education series, which gives participants practical insight and tools to help live a more secure, healthy and happy life. Seminar topics range from financial planning, saving for college, healthcare and ways to keep your family safe.

February 9, 2016 at 6:30 p.m. Estate Planning – Recent Changes in Medicaid

Presenters Clifton D. Kreuzer, attorney at law and Anthony C. Richter, income and estate planner, will discuss topics including:

- Changes to Wisconsin's Title XIX/Medicaid Program
 - Expansion of estate recovery programs (including facts regarding life estates, revocable trusts, life insurance that make them no longer "safe")
- Effects of new law on community spouses
- Planning opportunities going forward

Community members who are interested in current Medicaid information and planning for their financial future should plan to attend this information session.

The ON TRACK series of evening seminars is hosted at the Jane Bergstrom Fine Arts Education Center at St. Mary Catholic High School during the school year in partnership with community resources and experts at no cost to the community.

“These workshops are designed to help community members get on track and stay on track,” reflects SMCS Director of Fund Development and Community Relations Michelle

Dejno. “We recognize that everyone is on different tracks but trying to get to the same destination of financial security and wellbeing for their families. We believe that this series provides new ideas and relevant information to support our community members and we are excited to have area experts sharing their wisdom!”

All sessions begin at 6:30pm. To attend any of these seminars, interested participants should email Michelle Dejno at mdejno@smcatholicschools.org to reserve a spot. Walk-ins welcome.

St. Mary Catholic Schools (SMCS) includes St. Mary Catholic High School and the new St. Mary Catholic Middle School in the Town of Menasha and St. Mary Elementary Schools (St. Margaret Mary and St. Gabriel in Neenah, and St. Mary in Menasha).
