FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ST. MARY CATHOLIC SCHOOLS PRESENTS THE "ON TRACK" SERIES

NEENAH, Wisconsin– St. Mary Catholic Schools' ON TRACK series gives participants practical insight and tools to help live a more secure, healthy and happy life. Seminar topics range from financial planning, saving for college, healthcare and ways to keep your family safe.

The first of this year's series, "Planning for College-529 Accounts" will be held on Tuesday, October 25 at 6:30 p.m. Susie Bauer, a 529/UIT Manager from RW Baird will share ways parents can begin saving today for their children's college tuition. This session will be geared toward parents with children in elementary school through high school. It is never too early or too late!

The ON TRACK series of evening seminars is hosted in the black box theater at the Jane Bergstrom Fine Arts Education Center located at St. Mary Catholic High School in partnership with community resources and experts, at no cost to the community.

Remaining Sessions for 2016-17:

February 21, 2017: Four Simple Oversights that Could Impact Your Retirement Income for Life

Presenters: Attorney Clifton D. Kreuzscher and Income and Estate Planner Anthony Richter (VanDeHey, VanDeHey & Associates)

April 11, 2017: 21st-Century Parenting-Keeping Your Child Safe

Presenter: Village of Fox Crossing Community Liaison Officer Jason Weber

"These workshops are designed to help community members stay on track," reflects SMCS Director of Fund Development and Community Relations Michelle Dejno. "We recognize that everyone is trying to get to the same destination of financial security and wellbeing for their families. We believe that this series provides important ideas and relevant information to support our community members, and we are excited to have area experts sharing their wisdom!"

To attend any of these seminars, interested participants should email Michelle Dejno at mdejno@smcatholicschools.org to reserve a spot. Walk-ins welcome.
