Improvisation Workshops and Fun at SMCS

In association with the “Baby Wants Candy” improv show coming to the Jane Bergstrom Fine Arts Education Center, St. Mary Catholic Schools and McCurdy Theatre Arts are offering improv workshops for students in grades 3-12. The class for grades 8-12 are full, but there is still room in the November 15 classes for any students in grades 3-8 who are interested in learning the basics of the art of improvisational theatre.

In these workshops, taught by Katheen McCurdy of McCurdy Theatre Arts, students will play classic warm-up techniques and performance theater games to introduce skills for improv comedy and theater. Besides being fun, improv is also a fantastic way to teach creative thinking, public speaking, listening, eye contact, and teamwork!
