FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ST. MARY CATHOLIC SCHOOLS PRESENTS THE "ON TRACK" SERIES

NEENAH, Wisconsin– St. Mary Catholic Schools is excited to announce this season's ON TRACK education series that gives participants practical insight and tools to help live a more secure, healthy and happy life. Seminar topics range from financial planning, saving for college, healthcare and ways to keep your family safe.

The ON TRACK series of evening seminars is hosted at the Jane Bergstrom Fine Arts Education Center located at St. Mary Catholic High School during the school year in partnership with community resources and experts at no cost to the community.

Sessions:

November 10, 2015: Planning for College – 529 Accounts

Presenter: Jeannette Haen, 529 Product Specialist (Sponsor: RW Baird)

February 9, 2016: Estate Planning – Recent Changes in Medicaid

Presenter: Clifton D. Kreuzscher, Attorney at Law and Anthony C. Richter, Income and Estate Planner (Sponsor: Van De Hey, Van De Hey & Associates)

April 5, 2016: 21st Century Parenting – Social Media Awareness

Presenter: Officer Jason Weber, Community Liaison (Sponsor: Town of Menasha Police Department)

"These workshops are designed to help community members get on track and stay on track," reflects SMCS Director of Fund Development and Community

Relations Michelle Dejno. "We recognize that everyone is on different tracks but trying to get to the same destination of financial security and wellbeing for their families. We believe that this series provides new ideas and relevant information to support our community members and we are excited to have area experts sharing their wisdom!"

All sessions begin at 6:30pm. To attend any of these seminars, interested participants should email Michelle Dejno at mdejno@smcatholicschools.org to reserve a spot. Walk-ins welcome.

St. Mary Catholic Schools (SMCS) includes St. Mary Catholic High School and the new St. Mary Catholic Middle School in the Town of Menasha and St. Mary Elementary Schools (St. Margaret Mary and St. Gabriel in Neenah, and St. Mary in Menasha). SMCS is dedicated to the individual development of each student in grades Pre3-12, by providing the highest quality education focused on faith, academics and service in a rapidly changing world.
