“Be it known to all who enter that Christ is the reason for this school.”

1. It's almost time to play Family Feud for Fine Arts! Each of the five SMCS schools will send six students to play against another school or teacher team! Sign up in the front office for a chance to be on the high school Family Feud team before 9/26. Family Feud is on October 14!
2. Students who are interested in attending a student led bible study called “Bible Buddies” should check in with their activities teacher during A and then go to Ms. Hawley's room today after mass. Attendance will be taken there as well. All are welcome!
3. The Student Activities Leadership Team will be sponsoring a student fan bus to the Football game at Mayville on Friday. There will not be a cost to ride the bus, but you will still need to pay to get into the game. We will only take the bus if we get enough students signed up. Departure time will be 5:45pm. If you are interested, please sign up in the office by the end of the day TODAY!
4. National Honor Society is meeting on Thursday during activities B in the FAEC.
5. A note from Ms. Hawley to those who have expressed interest in the March for Life in Washington D.C. Please check your emails today for important scholarship information.
6. Looking for a job? Island Shores Retirement Community located in Neenah has openings for personal caregivers and servers/dish room attendants. Please contact Mrs. Hall for details or see postings on the job board across from her office.
7. Mercy Medical Center in Oshkosh is looking for volunteers age 16 or older for a commitment of at least six months. Please contact Ms. Hawley for details.
8. Baseball players—a note from Coach Jannsen: Please meet on the field after school for about an hour of “service.”
9. The girl tennis team travels to Oshkosh to take on Lourdes Academy in a 4:30pm match that's being played at Oshkosh West. The team will be dismissed at 2:45pm for a 3:00pm bus departure.
