

Daily Bulletin

Wednesday, September 6, 2017

“Be it known to all who enter that Christ is the reason for this school.”

1. As you may have noticed, the freshman are not here today—they are on retreat. So listen up for a few changes. Ms. Hawley’s 4th period study hall should report to Mr. DuVernay’s room, room 104. All students who are not freshman in Ms. Hawley’s Scriptures classes are reminded to report to study hall during class. Please stop in the office to find out which room you should be in.
2. Thank you to everyone who auditioned for the fall play, OUR PLACE. Callbacks will be held on Thursday this week. Please check your email from Mr. Kraus. Stage and Build crew will start working this Saturday, September 9. Please contact Mr. Kraus for a stage crew schedule!
3. Key Club is celebrating back to school with an ice pop sale after school each day this week! For just a quarter, you can get a tasty treat. The sale is from 3:15-3:30pm in the commons.
4. Attention Student Ambassadors! There will be a meeting today during Activities A in Mr. Verstegen’s room.
5. The SMCS High School VEX Robotics program hold its season kick-off meeting this evening at 6:30pm in the commons. All returning and interested students and parents are invited to attend.
6. The first Teens for Life meeting will be on Thursday, September 7. It will be during Activities B only in room 305. You may bring your lunch to the meeting.
7. There will be a Math Club meeting on Friday, September 8, during lunch A. Come to room 106 for SUM fun! (Get it?) 😊
8. Make-A-Wish Wisconsin is getting very excited for two important events that will be held in September – our signature Walk for Wishes event on September 6 and Bergstrom Automotives’ Drive for Dreams campaign on September 16. If you are interested in volunteer hours, please see Mrs. Lauterborn.
9. This weekend is Seafood Fest, which is held at Jefferson Park in Menasha. Organizers are still looking for volunteers. It’s a great way to earn service hours! It should be an extra special event, with Vic Ferrari’s Symphony on the Rocks headlining on Saturday night. See your religion teacher for the link to sign up to volunteer.
10. Students interested in going to the March for Life in Washington DC in January should see Ms. Hawley for registration information. The deadline for registering is November 1, so if you are interested, it is time to start talking to your parents about it now! Scholarships are available.
11. Spring yearbook inserts are in the office for both the middle school and high school. If you purchased a yearbook, please stop in the office to pick it up. This includes freshman who attended the middle school.