1. Tickets for the homecoming dance will be sold at lunch today and after school on Friday. They are $10 each.
2. Students, please check your emails. You will have two superlatives surveys to fill out. It is a fun survey of our students for the yearbook. One is for your class and the other is for teachers. Please try to have this done by the end of mentor time today. Many thanks from the yearbook staff!
3. Assignments for service morning tomorrow are posted in your religion classes and in the hallway by the student services window. Students should report to their first period class for attendance before going to the FAEC.
4. Juniors and Seniors—you can earn one college credit on your Marquette University transcript by participating in the Clinical Laboratory Science Young Scholar Program. The program includes two Saturdays on campus and one week of online distance course work. The cost is $200. Applications must be received at Marquette by October 13. Please contact Mrs. Hall for complete details.
5. Key Club forms are due TODAY!
6. Seniors—check your email for information about an essay scholarship about how religious education influenced your life. You could earn $1000.
7. The varsity boys soccer team will be playing Kiel tonight at 6:00pm on Zephyr Field. Come out to show your support. Good luck to the team!
