

Daily Bulletin

Thursday, October 11, 2018

"Be it known to all who enter that Christ is the reason for this school."

1. Freshmen interested in becoming a class officer for student council should pick up an election nomination form in the office. It needs turned in by Tuesday, October 16.
2. Student teacher conferences are today, Thursday October 11, and next Tuesday, October 16. The time tomorrow is 3:45-6:45pm and October 16 from 3:45-6:00pm. Students who attend with their parents will receive an out of dress code pass.
3. There will be a Forensics meeting on today during Lunch B in Mrs. Wautlet's room. Anyone interested in joining should attend.
4. A representative from Notre Dame will be in the Resource Center on Friday, October 12 at 2:30pm to meet with interested students.
5. Seniors – the link to the Elks Most Valuable Student Scholarship is now active in Naviance. The deadline is November 15th.
6. Senior information sheets and resumes must be turned in to the Counseling office by Monday, October 15 or they will need to be completed in RTI over the lunch hour. Please see the email from Mrs. Hall with directions on how to set up a senior meeting with Mrs. Castagna.
7. Seniors, just a friendly reminder that your senior quotes for the yearbook are due by tomorrow, October 11.
8. Art Club, our next activity is to tie blankets. Don't forget to bring in two yards of fleece fabric for tying by Tuesday, October 16. These blankets will be donated to the Harbor House.
9. We have two important drives happening now—diapers and wipes for Mother and Unborn Baby Care and pillows and other personal care items for Harbor House. All items can be brought to the front of the Resource Center each morning through October 19. Those who donate can participate in a Pajama Day out of dress code day on Monday, October 22.
10. The Soccer Team plays Green Bay NEW Lutheran in Green Bay tonight at 4:00pm. The team is dismissed at 1:45pm.
11. Happy birthday to Kate Vande Venter today and to Mrs. Chapeau yesterday! If you had a birthday since the first day of school, which was August 28, please pick up your birthday out of dress code pass in the office. It will be recycled at the end of the day on Friday. You were also sent an email about this last week.