Zephyrs High School Theater to present The Imaginary Invalid Oct. 22-24

St. Mary Catholic High School kicks off 2021-22 fine arts season with fall play

NEENAH, Wis. (October 6, 2021) – St. Mary Catholic High School (SMCHS) Zephyrs High School Theater will kick off its 2021-22 season with Moliere’s The Imaginary Invalid adapted by Milles Malleson, Oct. 22-24. Performances will be at 7 p.m. on Oct. 22 and Oct. 23 and 2 p.m. on Oct. 24, at the Jane Bergstrom Fine Arts Education Center, 1050 Zephyr Dr., Neenah.

“You aren’t going to want to miss this incredibly humorous masterpiece that has stood the test of time. It shows a day in the life of a hypochondriac and how he plans to deal with something a lot of people are currently struggling with... high medical bills,” SMCHS Fine Arts Director Eric Conner said.

Moliere’s last and most recognized play, The Imaginary Invalid is a 17th-century French commedia dell’arte piece is full of wit and farce. It is a hilarious play about an eccentric and wealthy hypochondriac, Argan, who decides to marry his daughter, Angelica, off to a doctor so he can always have a physician around. However, Angelica has other plans. Her attempts to persuade her father to let her marry another man led to outrageous tricks and disguises.

Lindsay Dahlberg is directing this year’s fall Zephyrs High School Theater play. The play includes more than a dozen high school students as cast members, as well as crew members supporting the production.
