St. Mary Catholic Schools welcomes Brett Baehman as alumni and communications coordinator

NEENAH, Wis. (February 2, 2021) – St. Mary Catholic Schools (SMCS) recently welcomed Brett Baehman as alumni and communications coordinator.

In his role, Baehman is an integral part of the SMCS Advancement team, assisting with marketing and communication tactics and alumni engagement. His work with alumni focuses on developing strong relationships and encouraging a sustained connection for alumni to the SMCS community. He will also network with the SMCS community of alumni, parents, students, faculty and volunteers to promote SMCS and enhance the SMCS brand.

“I am thankful to be able to join the SMCS community. I am eager to learn about the people that make SMCS such a special place. The opportunity to create new relationships with alumni excites me the most about this position,” Baehman said.

Prior to joining SMCS, Baehman worked at the Oshkosh Northwestern for two years as the editorial assistant. Most recently, Baehman assisted with editorial, alumni and communications work for the Lourdes Academy marketing department.

Baehman graduated with his bachelor’s degree in journalism with a double emphasis in writing/editing and public relations from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh in 2017. Baehman is a 2012 graduate from Lourdes Academy in Oshkosh.

“Having a Catholic background will help me transition to this position at SMCS. It is a privilege for me to be involved in a community that is based on a Catholic education, something I was fortunate enough to receive, as well,” Baehman said.
